A TEMPERANCE BAND OF 45 WOMEN ARRESTED.

CINCINNATI, May 16.—This afternoon a band of temperance women went out led by Rev. Mrs. S. B. Leavitt, and stopped in front of a saloon on Baymiller street, within two squares of where the disturbance occurred yesterday. The officers warned them to depart, but they sang and prayed and were arrested. They were taken to the Third street station house, followed by an immense crowd. Among the number were the wives of Rev. Dr. C. H. Taylor, Rev. Dr. C. H. Payne, Rev. Dr. Moffat, Rev. W. C. Lee, Rev. C. R. Leavitt and Rev. McHugh. They were released on parole to appear before the police court next Monday. In the station house, when Mayor Johnson came, they knelt and prayed and then commenced singing, but were stopped by the officers. After their release they returned to the Seventh Street Presbyterian Church and held a meeting.

A proposition was made to start a Temperance League in every Ward, and to raise a large guarantee fund of money for the purposes of the temperance movement. For the trial next Monday it was resolved to employ the ablest counsel that can be secured.

The police officers warned the women before starting out that there would be danger if they ventured on Freeman street. The officers say they had information that a band of German women was organized to meet them and drive them from the streets.

A mass temperance meeting is appointed to be held at St. Paul's Methodist Church to-morrow afternoon, and meetings are appointed for every night next week.

Orders were made to bail the women out of the station house, but they all refused it.

Crop Estimates for the West.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16.—The National Crop Reporter published to-day the estimates deducted from the report of the correspondent in relation to the comparative area of spring wheat and oats this season. In several western States the lateness of the season having prevented the closing of the usual spring sowings on May first. The State of Minnesota is not in the estimates. For the States of Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Missouri, and Wisconsin the average area sown this spring to wheat is placed at seven or eight tenths per cent greater than in the spring of 1873. The increase is four and six tenths per cent in Illinois, twelve and one-tenth per cent in Iowa, six and one-tenth in Arkansas, seven and four-tenths in Missouri, three and five-tenths in Wisconsin. The average seeded in oats this spring in comparison to the previous year is increased in the States named as follows: Indiana, 2 and 6-10ths per cent; Iowa, 9 and 8-10ths; Kansas, 8 and 8-10ths; Ohio, 8 and 6-10ths; Wisconsin, 3 and 0-10ths; Illinois (there is an estimated falling off in area of 1 and 1-10th in Missouri, 1 and 9-10th per cent. The average for the seven States is an increase of 5 and 3-10th per cent. At the figures given the increased area is about two hundred and fifty-five thousand acres of oats and seven thousand acres of wheat for the States named.

In relation to the comparative condition of wheat in the West it may be said to indicate a much higher rate than at the beginning of the previous month; the average on May first in the States of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin and Ohio was 87 and 3-10, a full average condition being one hundred. No especial change in the prospects of the fruit crops is noted, the outlook still being favorable.

ABOUT the latest thing out just now is vegetation.

We protest against any more rain until the streets are paved.

This shower yesterday afternoon was the occasion of many harmless exclamationing and crowded the street cars.

A FIRST-CLASS NURSE.—Now that the weather is getting warm, street loafing is degenerating into a science. While we don't object to see young gentlemen flourishing their little bamboo canes and airing the faintest symptoms of wilekism in the cool of the evening so long as they keep up a respectable degree of locomotion, we think that those who can find no better employment for their hands and hands than to display them around the McJure House, Stanton's, Bocking's and the Postoffice for the amusement or disgust of passers by, had better be drummed out of town. It is doubtless highly satisfactory to modest young ladies to think that upon every corner, night after night, throughout the long summer months, when walking is most pleasant and highly conducive to health, a class of truly amiable young gentlemen assemble to discuss their personal appearance as they go tripping homeward, or show up, to spit tobacco juice within an inch of costly alkies; to burn cigars under dainty feet, as they pick the way through a small ocean of expectation, and make remarks, supposed to be sarcastic, upon the carriage, dress and attitudes peculiar to woman-kind. Would it be too much of a good thing if the city were to establish a school for manners and send these nullities thither for schooling in behavior? She must do something to vindicate herself and protect ladies from exposure to insult and ridicule, to abolish a gamut of stares, ogles and sotto voce remarks that is odious to all and affords amusement only to a set of unmitigated scamps; or else say unto them all, "Young gentlemen, go West; grow up and inoculate with your virtues some other city."

THE CAPITAL CONVENTION.—There was a very small attendance at the meeting at the Court House Saturday afternoon, called for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Convention to be held at Graton on the 27th inst.

Judge Cochran was called to the chair, and appointed J. St. J. Clarkson Secretary.

It was stated that by some means the hour of holding the meeting had been omitted from several of the announcements, which accounted for the small attendance. Consequently it was deemed best under the circumstances to defer action until a future meeting, to be announced in the city papers and by hand bills. Upon motion of Mr. Good, it was therefore determined to hold the meeting on Saturday evening next at 7 o'clock.

Upon motion of Mr. Shalcross, a committee of five was appointed to properly advertise the meeting, consisting of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Shalcross, Reilly, Good, Blair and Davenport.

The meeting then adjourned until Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

THROUGH THE MARKET.—A reporter took a jaunt through the Second Ward market Saturday morning, "just for greens." The vegetable stands appeared to be pretty well stocked, and the hucksters were apparently in a jolly good humor over the fact that while their vegetables had dropped somewhat since last market day, there was not a corresponding "drop" in prices. Onions are held firm (under your nose) at five cents; radishes are steady at the same price, and rhubarb goes off at three bunches for a dime. The supply of young trees and flowers is good, and they seem to be selling rapidly. Butter is plentiful at thirty-five cents per pound. There is no material change in the price of meats. Fresh fish are abundant, and can be bought at twelve and a half cents per pound. The market is well patronized, and business is generally brisk.

CHURCH COURT.—This Court was in session until noon on Saturday.

The case of Shreiner vs. Logan Tribe No. 1, J. O. H. M., on a writ of superdeces to a judgment of the County Court was on motion ordered to be docketed and continued to a future day.

The hearing of the various liquor cases was continued until May 22d.

The case of C. Gaus vs. Benno Kammer and others, in assumpsit, has demurred, argued and overruled. A plea of non-assumpsit was filed and issue joined, and the hearing set for May 22d.

The case of John Goshorn's executor vs. W. M. Somerville was continued until this morning at 9 o'clock, to which time Court adjourned. This action was brought to recover the rent of a farm claimed to be due from Somerville.

YESTERDAY'S TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The large crowd assembled at Washington Hall yesterday afternoon was very convincing evidence that the friends of the temperance cause are not wearying of the strife in which they are engaged. The hall was filled in every part, and many were without seats. The meeting was opened by Dr. Reilly, who announced a hymn which was sung by the congregation. Rev. James Moffat then offered a prayer, and another hymn was sung, when Dr. Reilly introduced to the audience Rev. J. R. Thompson as the speaker of the occasion. Rev. Thompson is well known as a speaker of more than ordinary ability upon any topic, and his address yesterday afternoon is spoken of as one of his most successful efforts.

A SLIGHT FIRE.—On Saturday morning about three o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded from the Vigilant engine house, and that steamer was promptly on the street and ready for work. The alarm originated from the residence of Mr. James Leonard, on Main street. It appeared that Mr. Leonard, after lighting his pipe, had thrown a match into a fire grate in which there was a quantity of paper, which ignited, and portions of it falling upon the carpet, burned the floor for several feet. Several buckets of water were thrown upon the flames before the Vigilant arrived. The damage is comparatively trifling.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—On Friday morning last, as Prof. Fause, a carpenter employed in Holliday's planing mill, at the south end of the iron bridge, was getting some nails behind a circular saw a piece of board was thrown by the saw within an eighth of an inch of one of his legs. The board was thrown with such velocity, that had it struck him it would probably have crippled him for life.

CHRISTENING.—Quite a large number of Main street merchants assembled at the residence of Mr. Wm. Wollenweber yesterday afternoon to witness the christening of his little daughter. The child is about a year old, and was christened Estella Adele. Those present were entertained in a hospitable manner, and spent a very pleasant afternoon.

PERSONAL.—W. S. Hoode, Esq., of Cambridge, Ohio, is in the city attending to professional duties and visiting friends.

George Peppard, mate of the steamer Thompson Dean, left Cincinnati for his home in this city on the Andes Friday night. Mr. Peppard contemplates spending a few weeks in Canada this summer.

Rev. D. W. Fisher preached a sermon at the First Presbyterian Church last night in regard to the distinctive doctrine or creed of that denomination. His remarks were called out by the recent discussions consequent upon the Swing trial. Among other things he denied that the Church held or ever had held the doctrine of infant damnation.

RINGS.—This excellent comedian closed his engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening with a fair audience. The programme was changed by special request, so that "O'Toole Castle" was omitted, and the first act of "Shin Fan" substituted, concluding with "The Fastest Boy in New York." Mr. Riggs is a most excellent actor, as well as a thorough gentleman, and we echo the sentiments of all who have seen him on the stage, when we express the wish that he will be with us soon again.

DESERVED SUCCESS.—Among those in the same line of business in the city, we do not know a firm more deserving of success than our friends Messrs. Oxtoby & Dunfield, at 1804 Market street. In a few years they have established an extensive trade, as well as the reputation of being honest and honorable business men. In addition to their large stock of watches, clocks, jewelry, etc., they have recently added a handsome assortment of silver ware, and have now in their establishment almost everything in the trade.

POLICE COURT.—No cases were examined at the morning session of the police court on Saturday. In the afternoon two cases were disposed of, viz:

William Hance was fined $5 and costs for an indecent act committed on Friday. He was committed for fifteen days in default of $5 and costs.

Ellen Williams, for drunkenness, was sent up for fifteen days in default of $5 and costs.

BURNING BELT.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon two young gentlemen were going down the alley past the Register office, when they observed smoke issuing from the windows of the press room. They immediately entered the room and found that the lighted gas had been in some way turned immediately under a belt, and thus set it on fire. The gas was turned off, and the belt, although smoking considerably, was not injured much.

HELEN D'ESTE.—Of this lady and company, who appear in the Opera House this evening, the Evansville Daily Courier says:

The legitimate drama is so rarely produced in our midst that it was with impatience we awaited the appearance of Helen D'Este. The reception given her last night was a perfect ovation, and her success was decided almost from the outset.

Her support is far in advance of most traveling companies.

SALE OF FARM.—The Thomas farm, containing 183 acres, fronting on the river and opposite South Wheeling, was sold on Saturday at partition sale by Sheriff Cochran of Belmont county. The price realized was $20,000, and the purchaser was Jacob C. Thomas of this city. This farm is valuable for its coal and minerals, and is certainly worth the sum for which it was sold.

CARRIES THE ANTLERS.—Mr. James Farrell, the clever hostler at the Vigilant engine house, was on Saturday evening presented with a handsome pair of antlers, beautifully embellished, by some of his many friends. Mr. Farrell says that if any other hostler in the fire department can exhibit better trained horses than those in his care, he will cheerfully surrender the antlers.

THE BIRD STORE of Prof. Genther, the well known educator of birds, at 1110 Market street, attracts the attention of hundreds every day. Here every description of rare foreign singing birds are sold, as well as pure bred, prepared food for mocking birds, etc. Prof. Genther selects the seed himself, and his knowledge of birds enables him to know just what and how they should eat.

MAIL ROUTE MESSENGER APPOINTED.—Charles F. Newman has been appointed Mail Route Messenger between Cumberland, Maryland, and Piedmont, West Virginia, at $700 per annum, etc. T. Blair & Co., of Cincinnati, transferred to Pittsburgh and Cumberland route and designated a route agent.

AS WILL be seen by announcement elsewhere, Joe Kramer invites his friends to drink beer and eat lunch with him this morning at his saloon.

ICE CREAM AT MARTIN'S.—Mr. Martin, proprietor of the well known restaurant on Market street, opposite the City Building, is always according to some new demand on the part of the public. He is now prepared to furnish the best ice cream to be found in the city, as well as the more substantial luxuries of the season. He has private apartments for ladies alone or accompanied by gentlemen, and all can go to his establishment and enjoy a dish of ice cream without fear of intrusion.

CARPETS AND OIL CLOTHS.—As good a stock as is kept in the city. Prices greatly reduced. Tapestry Brussels at $1.30, sells everywhere at $1.50 and $1.60. All other goods in proportion. Call and examine, O ye that buy with cash. Stone & Thomas.
